2. (Internal Use Only - PLC) Miss Stephanie Takis, in the office of Senator Thomas Eagleton (D., Mo.) was called and advised that the U. S. Embassy in Saigon had information concerning the whereabouts of the husband of a constituent who is trying to locate him. Miss Takis stated that her inquiry with the State Department was still pending. However, she undoubtedly soon will receive the information concerning the constituent's husband. Miss Takis was again informed that this Agency had no interest in the husband and she understood she would make no mention of the Agency in her reply to the constituent.

3. (Internal Use Only - PLC) Mr. Jeff Diamond, in the office of Senator Harrison Williams (D., N.J.), called requesting information concerning South Vietnamese General Dzu, who was recently alleged by Representative Robert H. Steele (R., Conn.) to be engaged in drug trafficking. Mr. Diamond wanted to know if General Dzu was related or in any way associated with Truong Dinh Dzu, a South Vietnamese political figure concerning whom biographic information had been furnished to Mr. Diamond. Mr. Diamond was advised that they were not related or in any way associated.
